

IAATE Conference 2005

“Children and animals: planting the seeds for future conservation behavior (and a whole lot of fun!)”

Sarah M. Bexell, Conservation Education Specialist, Zoo Atlanta.....pg 4

“Making the grade: Integrating State and/or National Science Standards in your Education Program”

Jennifer Vieth, Program Manager/Assistant Curator, The Raptor Center at the University of Minnesota.....pg 13

“Starting from the Ground Up”

Sid Price, Avian Ambassadors, Tijeras, New Mexico .....pg 28

“No Time, No Money, No Space...No Problem! Developing Animal Shows With Limited Resources”

Susie Todd, Animal Programs Biologist, The Florida Aquarium

Paula Blum, Animal Programs Coordinator, The Florida Aquarium.....pg 34

“Measuring our Success: The Purpose and Power of Program Evaluation”

Karen Povey, Senior Staff Biologist, Wild Wonders Outdoor Theater

Maureen O’Keefe, Staff Biologist, Wild Wonders Outdoor Theater

Wendy Spaulding, Education Specialist

Point Defiance Zoo & Aquarium.....pg 37

“It’s About Relationships”

Steve Martin, President, Natural Encounters, Inc.....pg 49

“Pigeons and People: Some Lessons from and for the Experimental Analysis of Behavior”

M. Jackson Marr, Ph.D., Professor Emeritus,

School of Psychology, Georgia Tech.....pg 53

“The Lure of Education”

Joseph L. Shelnett, Executive Director, The Kelley Bartlett Conservancy,

Pike Road, Alabama .....pg 65

“Addressing Aggressive Behavior “

Barbara Heidenreich, Owner, Animal Training and Consulting Services

and Good Bird, Inc. ....pg 70

“Training Harry and Lloyd, or, Who turned the lights out?”

Melissa Horton, Wildlife Experiences Inc.....pg 87

“From Shows and Zoos to Show in Zoos”
Catherine Vine, Bird Keeper, The Philadelphia Zoo .....pg 93

“Lessons from a fly off”
Matt Edmonds, Wonders of Nature .....pg 101

“The Care and Management of Captive Raptors, 2nd edition: a Glimpse behind the Cover of this Newly Revised Management Tool.”
Lori Arent, MS, Clinic Manager,
The Raptor Center, College of Veterinary Medicine, University of Minnesota.....pg 104

“Training Permanently Disabled Raptors for Education Programs
From a Rehabilitation Center’s Perspective”
Sandra Fejt, Willowbrook Wildlife Center, Forest Preserve District of DuPage County, Glen Ellyn, Illinois..... pg 108

“Perceptions: Breaking Through”
Sally Adams and Ann-Marie Bisagno,
Adventure Aquarium, Camden, New Jersey .....pg 115

“Successful Intuitive Computer Interfaces for Birds, and Other Forays Into Giving Parrots Electronic Enrichment”
Constance Woodman, Head of Skidmore College Psittacine Enrichment Workshop,
Senior Animal Handler at Hawk Creek Wildlife Inc.....pg 121

“THE ASIAN VULTURE CRISIS -WHERE ARE WE TODAY?”
Jemima Parry-Jones MBE, International Director,
International Center for Birds of Prey, South Carolina .....pg 126